The concert season closes most auspiciously with a concert by Miss Lena Miller and Star Co., on the 18th of the present month at the Metropolitan church. It is the ambition of the management to make this entertainment one of the grandest of the season. A notable feature will be the rendering of several old time ballads by Miss Lena Miller, whose primitive sweetness has never been surpassed and seldom equaled. Such as "Where are the friends of my youth," "Oft in the still night," &c. By the coterie of artists participating it will be seen that a concert is guaranteed which is calculated to please and edify any audience.

The commencement exercises of the College department of Howard University took place last Thursday evening in the College chapel in the presence of a large and intelligent audience. "The Remedy for War" was well defined and delivered by Miss Josephine J. Turpin, of Richmond, Va., followed by a solo by J. T. Layton; oration, "The Gods Geometrize," by Kelly Miller, of Winsboro, S. THE MUSICAL ORIOLE BY THE JUNIOR EXCELSIORS.

The Musicales Oriole given by that club of young men, the Junior Excelsiors, which is fast growing in popular favor, at Willard's Hall Monday night last was as usual a success. The vocal part which lasted about an hour was very nice; all the participants acquitted themselves well. Special mention may be made of Misses Cora Thomas and Hellen Collins who sang solos, and the octette from the Association was very good. After the concert was over dancing was participated in until 12:30, and every one present seemed to enjoy themselves. Delightful music was furnished by that superb orchestra of Prof. Krause's. Among those present were noticed Misses Georgie Lewis, Mamie and Mat Williams, Lottie Harman, Anna Kenny, Bertie Page, Jennie Chichester, Messrs Joseph Savoy, C. B. Whipper, W. Handy Johnson, George and Frank Cordozo, William Freeman, Samuel Williams, John and Frank Hyman Joe Tucker, Garrison Booker and Dr. S. J. McFarland.

This club though the youngest of its kind in the city seems to be leading in successful enterprises. They have been requested by a great many of their friends and well wishers to give an excursion to Marshall Hall, which request is likely to be complied with.

The club has elected four trustees and are contemplating becoming an incorporated body. The trustees are Prof. F. L. Cardozo, T. J. Minton, R. C. Douglass and Wm. H. Bruce. They intend to build a hall and if they work on with such earnestness, and meet with such success in the future as they have in the past, there will not be many years before they accomplish their intention, and do that which men have failed to do before them.

Edward Randolph, Esq. formerly Editor of Richmond Planet, now one of its managers and lawyer practicing in Richmond, Va., is in the city the guest of Mr. Samuel Jackson.

Mrs. Wm. H. McWill of Chicago Ill., arrived in the city on last Thursday morning, and is stopping with her mother, Mrs. Hannah Ambrose, No. 1232 10th st., n. w., and will be glad to see her many friends.

HOWARD UNIVERSITY LAW DEPARTMENT.

SCOTT WOOD TELLS SOME FACTS. HE IS ENTHUSIASTICALLY APPLAUDED. HIS MASTER ORATION COMMENDED. THE PRESIDENTS REMOVAL, &c.

The Congregational church was packed Monday night with the friends of the graduates. Many and beautiful were the floral tokens of love and friendship, besides many of the graduates received valuable books which will help them much in their professions. Mr. W. C. Martin received two volumes of Banner's Dictionary. Mr. Scott Wood was very fortunate in having presented to him "Benjamin on Sales" which is indeed, a valuable acquisition to his library. At 8 p. m. to the beautiful strains of Prof. Krause's music, the graduating class of 1886 filed in and took seats with their friends. Among whom were Senator Sawyer, Judge Price, Judge Allen, Col. James D. Brady, Hon. Robert M. LaFollette, Hon. John M. Smythe, Rev. Walter H. Brooks, together with Prof. Benjamin F. Leighton, Dean of the Law Faculty and President Patton.

Prayer was offered for the success of the class by Rev. Walter H. Brooks. Address to the graduating class by Hon. Robt. M. LaFollette, was a masterly effort abounding in good sound advice to the young men, who as he well said, stood upon the borders of the grandest possibilities, where the very angels beckon them on; his peroration was simply grand. The next in order was the conferring of degrees, but the program was changed, and brought Mr. Scott Wood who made the highest percentage in his class and received the valedictory which also excluded him from competing for the prize. The question was asked why was the program changed? The solution which can be given is that Mr. Scott Wood, who was denied the valedictory in the college department of Howard University in 1883, but returned and captured it 1886. Mr. Wood claimed in his well written and splendidly delivered oration on the Legal Evolution of married women, that a certain class of men who have had control of Negro education ever since the war has become tyrannical and unjust to those who are completely under their control. Mr. Wood fully demonstrated by the high approval given him by the large and brilliant assemblage of some of Washington's best people.

He was applauded to the echo several times during the delivery of his oration, and whenever reference was made to the injustice done men by those who claim to be giving the best days of their lives to the education of the colored race, the church rang with applause. Mr. Wood is well acquainted in Washington city and highly respected and loved by all who know him. He has made his way from poverty to considerable prominence for a young man. And to remember the fact that he is a legitimate product of Howard University and as he claimed to have been so unjustly treated by those in authority, show that something is radically wrong and should be righted. He paid a glowing tribute to the Law faculty. His valedictory was indeed a rare treat. The authorities of Howard University must learn to treat their students with more respect and win their friendship, for it certainly lowers a man when he has to neutralize the statements of those whom he has prepared. The most dangerous instruments are those prepared by one's self. The Bright case, the treatment of those young men by the Theological Faculty all tend to hurt the institution. If Howard University is ever to have thousands within its walls rather than hundreds, the administration must be changed. President Patton should step down and out, says Mr. Wood. The following named received the degree of L. L. B., most of whom were Virginians and will practice in the state. Mr. Whitte of Richmond won the prize, and Messrs Bundy and L. J. Brown received honorable mention. Graduates: Scott Wood, L. J. Brown, John H. Kinckle, J. F. Bundy, R. H. Merchant, E. B. Brown, W. C. Martin, Jas. H. Ricks, Arron R. Bridgers, Jr., Chas. F. Whitte, Mrs. E. A. Chambers.
